

Suggestions for Hosting Successful Holiday Parties

Overindulging can put a damper on any holiday party. Here are a few suggestions for how to host a successful holiday party...

- ❖ Make your guest list manageable.
- ❖ Set an agenda for the entire party including meal times, entertainment etc.
- ❖ Plan for entertainment, don't rely solely on alcohol to put people in a party mood.
- ❖ Introduce your guests to each other to help them get to know each other.
- ❖ Consider serving drinks such as beer and wine that will be absorbed slower than other alcoholic drinks.
- ❖ Don't rush to fill half glasses – don't worry, it won't reflect on you as a good host or not.
- ❖ Always offer a variety of beverages and make sure all guests know they are available.
- ❖ Snacks and other foods should be available and accessible to everyone. Consider closing the bar an hour or so before the party is set to end and again have more food available for everyone.